

SSAGO

Student Scout and Guide Organisation

Information for Young People

What is SSAGO?

The Student Scout and Guide Organisation (SSAGO) enables any student to continue or begin their Scouting or Guiding journey whilst at College or University. Anyone who is at an Institute of Higher Education can join SSAGO. It is not necessary to be a member of the Scout or Guide Associations to join SSAGO and you can join a local club or become an independent member.

SSAGO gets together nationally with camps, a formal ball, international trips and also offers countless local and regional club opportunities.

SSAGO and University

If you go to university then SSAGO is there to encourage you to take part in fun activities, camps and national events. Joining a SSAGO club can also help you build links with local Scouts and Guides in your new area which is great if you're looking to volunteer.

Joining a club can also help you through the ups and downs that come with university life. By surrounding yourself with like minded people who you share similar interests with you might even make friends for life!

More Information

To find out more about who we are, what we do and where our clubs are based, visit our website at www.ssago.org.

Alternatively email our National Executive Committee for more information at exec@ssago.org or find us on our social media.